Morning Breakout Handout

Role-based conversation | 45 minutes

Purpose: Reflect on what they heard about the statewide restorative plans and discuss what feels most important for their role.

Framing – 5 minutes

- Introductions of group members
- Take a moment to decide on a facilitator, note catcher, timekeeper, and reporter
- Aim for your group to identify one practical idea each of you wants to carry forward.

Conversation prompts

- What stood out to you most from this morning's keynote, and why does it matter for your role?
- Of the Statewide Action Plan ideas we heard about today, which feels most important for you or your group to help move forward?
- Where in your role do relationships get squeezed out by process, and what would it take to protect that relational space?
- What is one practical shift people in your role could make to support a more restorative approach?

Simple timing guide

- 5 minutes | Welcome, framing, and quick introductions
- 35 minutes | Discuss the four prompts
- 5 minutes | Choose report-out points

Report-out

- One thing that stood out
- One practical shift your group identified that you each want to carry forward